Can, Can't, would rather

Joey: Hey Anthea. How's it going?

Anthea: Hi Joey. Everything's great! I'm so excited for the weekend. I can't _____

Joey: Me too. Do you have any ideas about what you'd like to do?

Anthea: It depends on the _____

Joey: Well I hope it's _____ and _____. If it's hot and sunny, I can go to my parent's farm

Anthea: Wow. What can you do there Joey?

Joey: I can have a _____ or a barbeque. I can _____ hiking with my family. And if I'm feeling energetic, I can go _____ or even ride my _____ Anthea: Well it sounds like you wouldn't get bored.

Joey: Not at all. What about you? What will you do if the weather is good?

Anthea: If it's _____ and _____, I can go to the lake that's near to my house and do some watersports

Joey: What kind of watersports?

Anthea: I can go _____ or I can go windsurfing. However, if there is absolutely no wind, I can't go windsurfing

Joey: Hmm. And what will you do if the weather is cold?

Anthea: If it's _____ and rainy, we can do many things indoors.

Joey: Yes. Would you rather go _____ or would you rather stay home and make a cake?

Anthea: Ooh. That's a difficult choice. If it's raining, I'd rather _____ home and _____ a cake. If it's not raining, I could go shopping. I love the shops! What would you rather do Joey?

Joey: I'd rather stay home and _____ table tennis. I always beat my brother because he can't hit the ball to save his life!

Anthea: Wow you're so lucky to be able to play table tennis. Well enjoy your weekend Joey!

Joey: Bye!
