

Grammar training

Verbs with Gerunds and Infinitives

Choose the correct variant.

1. He forgot                    to mention / mention    he was bringing a guest so there weren't enough chairs for both of them.
2. I didn't mean    to upset / upsetting            you.
3. Remember        to keep / keeping                    your doors and windows locked—even if you're in the back garden.
4. Unemployment is likely to go on                    to rise / rising    this year as well.
5. His injury could mean                    to miss / missing                    next week's game.
6. I have always regretted                    to give up / giving up    my piano lessons.
7. I tried hard not                                    to laugh / laughing.
8. Try        to log / logging off and on again. This might help.
9. Don't you ever stop    to talk / talking?
10. She doesn't like                    to swear / swearing                    in front of the children. She thinks it's bad.
11. Police are advising people                    to stay / staying    at home.
12. Programmes like this just encourage    to stereotype / stereotyping.
13. The engine will need    to check / checking                    soon.
14. His parents won't allow him to stay / staying out late.

