

Listening

[Track 107] You will hear an interview with Giles Hall, who is organizing an event. For questions 1–10, choose the best answer (A, B or C). There is an example at the beginning (0).

0 We are listening to

- A a local radio programme.
- B a programme on a sports station.
- C a national radio programme.

1 Giles Hall is organizing sports courses for

- A local adults and children.
- B kids from across the country.
- C children from schools in the town.

2 Before this year, there have been

- A two previous summer sports courses.
- B just one other summer of sports courses.
- C no summer sports courses in the town.

3 This year the sports courses will last for

- A five weeks.
- B six weeks.
- C seven weeks.

4 On this year's sports courses,

- A there'll be the same opportunity to play golf as tennis.
- B both cricket and basketball will be on offer to kids.
- C neither rugby nor football will be included.

5 Giles says kids will be able to improve their sports skills because of

- A the good coaches they have on the courses.
- B the quality of the facilities on the courses.
- C the number of supervisors they have to help.

6 Some children missed out on the courses last year because

- A there was a problem with staff numbers.
- B they applied for a place on the course too late.
- C there wasn't enough interest in the courses from their parents.

7 Giles seems to be

- A worried that not all the places on this summer's courses will be filled.
- B concerned that some kids will leave it too late to book a place.
- C keen to persuade parents to take an interest in the sports courses.

- 8 To book a place on the sports courses, people
A can book on the internet or by phone.
B will have to call a special phone line first.
C must go to a particular website on the internet.

- 9 Giles says that on the courses
A there will be the same adventure sports as last year.
B there won't be any adventure sports this year.
C there'll be adventure sports but no water sports.

- 10 Giles says that the sports courses will take place
A in the same place as last year.
B in a different place from last year.
C nearer the lake than last year.

Reading

You are going to read an online job advertisement page. For questions 1–10, choose from the sections (A–H). The sections may be chosen more than once. There is an example at the beginning (0).

- 0 Speaking a foreign language may help you get this job.
1 If you tried to get this job before, don't try again. D
2 If you do well at this job, you will be paid extra. _____

- 3 You don't need to have done this type of job before. _____
4 You won't work in just one place. _____
5 This place has just opened for the first time. _____
6 You must have a qualification to do this job. _____
7 This is a part-time job. _____
8 To get this job you must have had a job in London before. _____
9 You can apply for this job by phone. _____
10 Before getting this job permanently, you must show how well you can do it. _____

(10 points)

Today's jobs

A

Experienced, responsible barista required for an exciting new opportunity. You will be required to train other baristas in our many busy city centre coffee shops, and a scooter will be provided to get about town. The role is well-paid with a pension and good benefits – will suit hard-working self-motivator with creative ideas and good people skills. Give us a call. Our number is on the website.

Simple Coffee Company
Battersea, London

B

Full-time retail assistants needed for our newly opened Fresh Foods Supermarket in Croydon. Retail experience preferable but not essential. We seek friendly, reliable workers prepared for long hours and flexible about when they start and finish work. Applications in writing to our head office address.

Fresh Foods Market Broad Green, London

C

We are hiring cleaners in North London for occasional afternoon or weekend work. Our clients are wealthy high earners with demanding requirements so references showing you can do this job well are required. Organized, punctual and independent employees needed who are able to meet strict deadlines. Good conditions. Please apply by email with your mobile number.

*Topp Cleaning
Finsbury Park, London*

D

Hard-working apprentice kitchen assistant needed for trendy, recently reopened French restaurant. Full training provided although we do require a catering college qualification and some restaurant or hotel kitchen experience. Good opportunity to learn on the job, and start your career in the catering business. Expect long hours, weekend work and a fun and lively team. A knowledge of French is an additional advantage. Written applications only.

*The City Kitchen
Westminster, London*

E

We are hiring a full-time Team Leader to join our team in a busy and successful hotel and pub. If you are passionate about hospitality and want to run your own bar in the future, apply now. Evidence of previous work in this field required. A degree in catering management a bonus. Need to be confident and independent and good at working under pressure. Enclose your CV with your application, giving full details of qualifications, work experience and skills as well as your contact details. Previous applicants need not reapply.

*Queen's Head
Tooting, London*

F

Now opening on Sunday evenings for the first time, we are a historical, newly refurbished pub on Richmond Hill with a fantastic menu. We are currently seeking great chefs to extend and improve what we offer. This is a full-time position with benefits but subject to an initial three-month trial period. Please apply by email with contact details and references from previous employers, as well as proof of a diploma or degree from culinary school if you have one (not essential).

The Hill

Petersham, London

G

We are currently looking for an ambitious and friendly Restaurant Manager seeking an exciting new challenge within a growing, independent restaurant group. Based in the heart of Camden, the current site offers homecooked cuisine in a warm and comfortable setting. The owner is planning to open a second site in the heart of south London with exciting plans to open a third site by the end of the year. The role offered will be to manage the current restaurant full-time. The ideal Restaurant Manager will have worked in an independent business serving authentic, freshly cooked food in a high-volume London location. You will have experience in overseeing back-of house procedures including rota management, payroll and cost budgeting alongside working with the kitchen team. Qualifications desired but not essential. Apply by post.

Dine Out

Camden, London

H

We are looking for an experienced fast-food outlet manager in east London to join a growing company. We are a fun and exciting brand serving fresh, quality Mexican food. The ideal candidate must have at least three years' management experience in restaurants or retail, excellent communication skills and a passion for delivering great service. Previous brand experience is preferred but not essential. In return, we will offer great training and progression, generous bonus payments dependent on performance, and 28 days annual holiday. This is a seven-day operation, so will include weekends as part of your working week. Applications online.

Speedy Gonzales

Sands End, London.