Playa de las Américas is the name of the resort where we 3) (stay)_____ in Tenerife. Laurence chose it from the travel agent's brochures because it's near the airport and we would arrive late at night. Well, that seemed to make sense, but it turned out to be the most awful place you can imagine. Playa is the Spanish for beach, but that resort doesn't have a beach – just a strip of black mud, 4) (be) _____ a volcanic island. All the beaches in Tenerife are black because they 5) (make) _____of black volcanic powder. Apparently, only a few years ago some businessmen decided 6) (build) _____ a resort there. There is a main street which has the most vulgar bars, cafes and discos you 7) (ever see)_____, with deafening music and flashing lights and greasy cooking smells all round the clock. Apart from that there's nothing except block after block of high-rise hotels and apartments.
It's a concrete nightmare with hardly any trees or grass. In spite of this, Tenerife 8) (visit) _____ by thousands of tourists every year.
We 9) (not realise) _____ how horrible it was immediately because it was dark when we arrived.
We're sure we 10) (not return) _____ in the future.
