

Immigration Quota Act and the Resurgence of the KKK

Directions: Using the word bank, choose the correct letter to fill in the blank.

WORD BANK

a. Calvin Coolidge	b. Immigration Quota Act	c. restrictions	d. National Origin Act	e. Asia
f. immigrant	g. south	h. Ku Klux Klan	i. 1965	j. 2%
k. Europe	l. African American	m. new	n. 3%	o. unrestricted

Immigration/Emergency Quota Act

An _____ is a person living in a country other than that of his or her birth. Prior to the 1920s, the United States followed a policy of _____ immigration (except _____.) Many of these immigrants came from Southern and Eastern _____, which was referred to as "New" immigration. In the 1920s, more _____ were put on immigration. The _____ restricted the number of immigrants from a country to _____ of total people from that country living in the US in 1910. Immigration essentially comes to a screeching halt in the 1920s. _____ signed the _____ which cut the quota from 3% to _____ and this was law until _____.

The Resurgence of the KKK

The _____, also referred to as the KKK, returned in the 1920s. The reason for the return was a reaction to _____ immigration. The characteristics of the KKK was really anti-_____, as well as being anti-semitic and anti-catholic. In the 1920s the KKK spread from the _____ to other regions of the country.