Waiting for love?

Alice was 16 when she met Gordon. They dated for a while in high school. Then Gordon joined the army. He was shipped out right after graduation. Gordon and Alice wrote each other for a while, but they eventually lost touch. Alice met another man and had two children. Gordon met a nice woman and had children as well. As more time passed, the children grew up and both Alice and Gordon lost their spouses. At age 72, someone knocked on Alice's door. It was Gordon! He had looked her up on the internet and found out where she lived. They started dating again. A year later, they got married.

Steven and Myra grew up next door to each other. They were good friends when they were little. They started dating when they were 13. When they were 15, Steven's family moved to China. Myra and Steven both moved on with their lives. They got good jobs and had good lives, but neither of them ever married. Twenty years later, Myra and Steven connected on a social media site. They talked for a while online. Then they talked on the phone. Finally, they decided to meet. They met at a restaurant near where they grew up. They talked all night. Steven proposed at the same restaurant a year later.
