Instructions

- Take a look to the following sentence and determine which is the best topic sentence. To select the correct choice, write yes between the parenthesis to select the right answer. Write no to make clear that the sentences is not a topic sentence

Group 1

( ) a. The history of aviation is interesting.

( ) b. Comets are normally related with incoming disasters.

( ) c. For instance, the Apollo 11 landed on the moon 51 years ago.

( ) d. Ancient civilizations watched comets from different perspectives.

- Take look to the following paragraph sentences. They have been shifted from their original position. Order the sentences in the best manner possible from first (topic sentence) to the last (concluding sentence)

These are the main reasons why people normally die in our streets and I hope one day it will finish. ( )

The last one is the saddest because it kills normally very young people between 18 and 21 years and is road rage and reckless driving. ( )

This people are prey of stress or fun in the stress, so they end breaking speed limits or advancing in prohibited situations leading to violent results. ( )

Second, disobedience of security rules. ( )

Ticos are well known breaking state rules and one of them are traffic rules. ( )

People (normally men) often don´t used their seatbelt, or don´t wear protections while riding a bike, so they die or are heavily injured in light accidents when they could walk away from the accident without any injury. ( )

The horrible planning and state of roads causes non-human related accidents in every place of the country. ( )

First, bad state of roads. ( )

Costa Rica´s vial infrastructure is just awful only compared with Belize. ( )

Traffic accidents have become a universal problem in Costa Rica for three causes. ( )