LEGOLAND

This is a model of London. Everything is small. There are lots of very small houses, shops, cars, and people. There are parks with trees and over here...

... there's the River Thames! There's a bridge too – Tower Bridge. It opens and the boats go under it. It's great! There aren't any woods or mountains in this model of London but...

... I can take two big steps and... here's a model of Scotland! Everything is small here too. There are woods, mountains, and a lake. There aren't many houses or shops and there aren't many people. It's beautiful countryside. A monster lives in this lake! It's under the water so you can't see it. But look! You can see lots of bubbles in the water. It's very funny!
