

CONDITIONAL SENTENCES - ABOUT: The Past

a) Conjugate the following verbs:

| | | |
|-------|--|--|
| BEGIN | | |
| FLY | | |
| KNOW | | |
| LOSE | | |
| SELL | | |
| TAKE | | |
| WEAR | | |
| HIDE | | |

b) Join the questions in Column 1 with the conditionals in Column 2

| | |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Who would you have called | if he had asked you for some money? |
| How much would you have lent him | if your car had broken down? |
| How would you have gone home | if you had liked the painting? |
| Where would you have stayed | if you had lost your keys in the accident? |
| How much would you have paid | if the hotel had been fully booked? |

c) Fill in these sentences using a suitable form of the verbs. Use contractions (n't).

- 1) I was so lucky! If I _____ (not see) the red light, I _____ (not stop).
- 2) She didn't tell you anything? If she _____ (not tell) me, I _____ (be) mad.
- 3) 30 dollars? I _____ (not pay) that much for a photograph if I _____ (be) alone.
- 4) The tech guy was at the company so we managed to finish the audit. If he _____ (not be) here, we _____ (not be) able to use the new system.
- 5) I _____ (not finish) on time, if you _____ (not help) me. Thanks, Tom.

d) Now create YOUR own situations. Be realistic!

For example: (What did you do yesterday/last weekend? What was the result?)

If I hadn't eaten so much chocolate, I would have felt much better.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____