

L198 They can't go to Herbert's Party.

They Can't Go to Herbert's Party

Herbert is depressed. He's having a party today, but his friends can't go to his party. They're all busy.

- A. Can you go to Herbert's party?
B. No, I can't. I have to work.

- A. Can Michael go to Herbert's party?
B. No, he can't. He has to go to the doctor.

1. you and Tom?
fix our car

2. Susan?
go to the dentist

3. your children?
do their homework

4. John?
wash his clothes

5. your parents?
clean their apartment

6. Can YOU go to Herbert's party?

How to Say It!

Apologizing

- A. Can you go to a movie with me on Saturday?
B. I'm sorry. I can't. I have to clean my apartment.

Practice the interactions on this page, using "I'm sorry" to apologize.

Practice conversations with other students. Practice inviting, apologizing, and giving reasons.

go to a soccer game

have lunch

have dinner

go swimming

go shopping

go dancing

go skating

go skiing

go bowling