

ADJECTIVES: -ED OR -ING

First, choose the correct adjective for each situation. Then, complete with the appropriate form.

terrified   tired   annoyed   amazed   excited   relaxed   disappointed   bored   confused   surprised terrifying   tiring   annoying   amazing   exciting   relaxing   disappointing   boring   confusing   surprising

The magic show
was .....

I was .....
by the magician's
incredible tricks.

I had a really .....
weekend.

I felt so ..... I took a nap after school.

What a long day! I'm very ..... now.

It's very ..... being
a parent.

I was .....
because Joe was
playing loud music.

It's very .....
when people make a
lot of noise.

I failed my driving test last week. I was really .....

It's ....., but I can take the test again.

It's always ..... to go to a live concert.

I got my ticket for the music festival. I'm so .....!

The class was very ..... this
morning.

I was so ....., I fell
asleep!

Ana received
a ..... e-mail this
morning.

Ana was really .....
when she read the email.

I don't like this. I am ..... of heights!

I didn't think cleaning windows would be
so .....

I'm completely ..... I don't know what this means.

These instructions are very .....

