

Grammar. Present Simple, Present Continuous, Past Simple, Past Continuous, Present Perfect

Choose the correct option in the sentences:

Don't disturb her, she an online test now (do).

At this time of the day he usually to work (travel).

Listen! The girl (sing).

He (go) fishing yesterday and he (catch) one fish.

We (lose) our bag while we (fly) from Rome to Munich.

When he (cook) vegetables, he (cut) his finger.

We (see) him when he (cross) the street.

They (buy) a car last week.

I usually (visit) my relatives in summer.

I (drive) home when a dog (run) in front of my car.

Write down the correct tense:

A: What (you do) tonight?

B: I (meet) a friend for dinner.

I feel sick today, because yesterday I (eat) some strange seafood.

I cannot speak to you now, I (finish) my report.

My little brother (break) a vase when he (ride) his new bike yesterday.

The children (fall) asleep when she (tell) them a bedtime story.

How did you get to London? First, we (take) a train to Moscow, then we (fly) to Paris, and from there we (go) by ferry across the Channel.

I (read) the last pages of my book, when my phone (ring).

Quantifiers. Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Use ONE word for each space

1. There weren't many people on the train this morning.
There were only people on the train this morning.
2. There's too much traffic on the roads.
There are cars on the roads.
3. You can park here. There's plenty of space.
You can park here. There's a of space.
4. There weren't any places to park.
There were places to park.
5. Most drivers are OK, but some drive really badly.
Most drivers are OK, but there are who drive really badly.
6. There's too little time! I need more hours in the day.
There are hours in the day. I need more time!