Listening Strategy: Idioms

In the Listening Section of the TOEIC®, you may hear many phrases that do not seem to make sense in the situation discussed. This could be because these phrases are idioms. Idioms mean something other than the literal meaning of the words used. If you are more familiar with business idioms, you will better understand business talks and dialogs.

Below are some useful idioms used in business contexts.

Idioms	Meaning.
1. By the book	According to the rules.
2. Throw in the towel	Give up.
3. Up to speed	Having the latest information.
4. Win-win-situation	A situation where both parties involved get a benefit.
5. Meet someone halfway	Compromise.
6. On the ball	Smart, aware of any developments and quick to react to them.
7. Back to the drawing board	Start again from the beginning.
8. The big picture	The most important facts; the main ideas.
9. See eye to eye	Agree or have the same opinion.
10. Cut to the chase	Say what is important without delay.
11. Talk shop	Talk about work in a social situation where it is not appropriate.

Look at the following examples. If possible, have a partner read the dialog or talk while you listen.

Ex 1

Joe: Why the frown, Matt?

Matt: The start-up isn't going too well. I might have to throw in the towel.

Joe: Don't do that! Things will turn around. The economy is just a little sluggish.

Matt: I sure hope so. I don't want to go back to working for someone else.

What is Matt considering doing?

- (A) Opening a health-related start-up
- (B) Starting a new exercise program
- (C) Working for someone else
