

MINI TEST 1 – LINE GRAPH

Exercise 1: Choose the word that is different from the others in each question.

1	sharply	steadily	swiftly	rapidly
2	significantly	substantially	minimally	dramatically
3	gradually	steadily	moderately	slightly
4	fluctuating	constant	unchanged	stable
5	growth	rise	increase	rocket
6	climb	drop	decline	fall
7	stable	unchanged	constant	plummet
8	almost	exactly	roughly	nearly
9	hit a high if	hit a peak of	level out at	peak at
10	slightly	suddenly	insignificantly	minimally

Exercise 2: Read the following sentences and decide whether they are grammatically right or wrong. Then, identify which formula is used in each sentence and write down the number (1, 2, 3, ...)

Sentence	Right	Wrong	Formula
1. The income of Café Cool increased significantly from 1,000 dollars in January to 5,000 dollars in March in 2000, followed by a slight fall by 500 in 2010.
2. Starting at 20 grams in May, the number of pork consumption rose fourfold two months later.
3. The number of cars purchase in 1990 was 100, after which it ascended quickly to reach 1,000 in 2000.
4. The price of oil in Vietnam increased over the given period, meanwhile the opposite was true in China.
5. The period 2000-2010 witnessed a considerable rise in the quantity of students who took the IELTS-preparation course at this English Language Center.
6. The sales of bananas in the UK was $5 billion in 2000, but this figure doubled in 2010.			