Complete each gap with one word.

The key (1) _____ keeping your child safe, whether in-person or online, is making sure they are (2) _____ of the issue.

Instruct your children about bullying. Once they know what bullying is, they will be able to spot it more easily, (3) _____ it is happening to them or someone else.

Talk openly and frequently to your children. The (4) _____ you talk to them about bullying, the more comfortable they will be telling you if they see or experience it. Check in with your children daily and ask (5) _____ their time at school and their activities online, inquiring not only about their classes and activities, but (6) _____ about their feelings.

Help your child be a positive role model. There are three parties involved (7) _____ bullying: the victim, the perpetrator, and the bystander. Even if children are not victims of bullying, they can prevent bullying by being inclusive, respectful and kind to their peers. If they witness bullying, they can defend the victim (8) _____ intervening.

Alexandros Vouyouklis www.fleximedia.gr

LIVEWORKSHEETS