Choosing your future

Nowadays, many teenagers choose a 1) v_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ l or technical school instead of going to the university and getting a 2) d_ _ _ _ e. However, this solution might be problematic in the 3) f_ _ _ _ e.

It's important to remember that qualified professionals will always be needed on the 4) j _ b market. Nevertheless, people who are highly educated are usually paid more than technical school graduates because they hold more 5) k_ _ _ _ _ _ _ e, both theoretical and practical. People who have graduated a university are often owners of businesses, conduct important researches and have 6) r _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ s that do not 7) i _ _ _ _ _ e hard, tiring, physical work.

Still not convinced? University students have tons of 8) d _ _ _ _ _ _ _s, for example: public 9) t _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ n, restaurants, bars, 10) e _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ t centres, shops and many, many more.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1) _____ - a type of school which focuses on teaching practical skills and abilities necessary for a given occupation.

2) _____ - a special title you get after finishing your university studies: bachelor of arts, master, doctor etc.

3) _____ - the time that will come later, is not happening now.

4) _____ - the occupation, work that somebody is doing.

5) _____ - the values and things we know / we learnt through our life, school and experiences.

6) _____ - things that you must do for school, work, or at home; chores.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7) - to contain; when something is a part of something.

8) - when you don't have to pay the full price or you pay less.

9) - when you commute/go from one place to another.

10) - the ways of spending free time, relaxing, doing things for fun.

LIVEWORKSHEETS