

IMPORTANCE OF CLEANLINESS

Last _____ morning, Shah _____ going to _____ for his Sports Day. He _____ at a stall to buy _____. He saw the stall was _____ but he did not mind. He was _____, so he _____ two packets of nasi lemak. He _____ energy to run in the _____.

While running in the race, Shah felt a sharp _____ in his _____. He could not run fast. However, he wanted to run to finish the race.

Suddenly, he fell on the _____. He _____ in the field. He knew that he had food poisoning. The teachers saw him and gave him a help. He _____ that he bought the nasi lemak from the dirty stall. He also _____ in the race. It was an _____ that he would never _____.

Saturday	hungry	dirty	stopped	nasi lemak
experience	school	was	vomited	pain
needed	stomach	race	ate	forget
	ground	regretted	lost	