1. ISABEL

Once upon a time, there was a princess who lived in a city. Her name was Isabel. She loved to sing very much. She sang anytime and anywhere. When she was singing, everyone must be quite. If not, she would punish them.

One day an old beggar asked her some money while she was singing. Princess Isabel was very angry, but the beggar was angry too. The old beggar was actually a witch. She cursed Isabel, and from that day she could not sing.

Fortunately, there was a fairy. She was a good one. She said, "You can sing again after you do a good thing to someone else."

From then on, Isabel was always good to everybody. She wanted her voice back. However, it never came back. So, she travelled from one city to another to do good things.

One day, when she took a rest in a forest after her long journey, she saw a thin little boy. The boy was hungry. Without thinking of herself, Isabel gave her only sandwich. Suddenly she could sing again. Her beautiful voice was back. Isabel was always good to everybody

2. TRUE FRIEND

Once upon a time, there were two close friends who were walking through the forest together. They knew that anything dangerous can happen any time in the forest. So they promised each other that they would always be together in any case of danger.

Suddenly, they saw a large bear getting closer toward them. One of them climbed a nearby tree at once. But unfortunately the other one did not know how to climb up the tree. So being led by his common sense, he lay down on the ground breathless and pretended to be a dead man.

The bear came near the one who was lying on the ground. It smelt in his ears, and slowly left the place because the bears do not want to touch the dead creatures. After that, the friend on the tree came down and asked his friend that was on the ground, "Friend, what did the bear whisper into your ears?" The other friend replied, "Just now the bear advised me not to believe a false friend."
