

Fado: Music of Portugal

Fado comes from the Latin word "fadum", which means _____.

Fado is a melancholic song of _____, _____, and passion.

Founded in early _____ in Portugal, Fado quickly became the music of the country.

One word "a saudade" loosely translated as "_____" perfectly describes this type of music.

The singer compares Fado to _____, _____, love, and _____.

Fado is thought to be a "window to the _____ of Portuguese people.

Fado is part of the UNESCO _____ Cultural Inheritance List.

Fado is sung with such _____ that you feel you understand the words.

