

Match the verb and its meaning

- live it up
- think up
- conjure up
- dress up
- give up
- end up
- imagine
- put special clothes on
- do something eventually
- no longer want to do something
- be as good as you'd expected
- invent

1 Complete the sentences with these phrasal verbs in the correct form.

conjure up dress up end up give up live up to think up

- 1 On holiday, we saw some amazing dances where the dancers were in traditional costumes.
- 2 The horse-riding and surfing holiday in the South of France all my expectations. I want to go back again next year!
- 3 Our friends, Max and Emma, had bought a boat and they asked us to a name for it. We suggested 'Sea for Two'!
- 4 When I was imagining my ideal holiday, I images of a beautiful island with palm trees swaying in the breeze!
- 5 We were hoping to bathe in the waterfall but it was too cold, so we taking selfies instead!
- 6 As soon as the group of tourists heard about the floods, they the idea of travelling to the lakes.

Think about and write 3-5 sentences

- Something you have dressed up for recently
- Something you ended up doing last weekend
- A good excuse you once thought up
- Something that didn't live up to your expectations
- What a holiday in Iceland or Caribbean conjures up
- An idea you gave up of the weather or lack of time recently

Match idiom and its meaning

- put your socks up
- blow away
- down in the dumps
- high on the list
- over the moon
- fall in love
- get into the swing/spirit of
- very happy
- start to have strong romantic feelings
- extremely interested/surprised
- start to understand/enjoy
- work hard
- feel low/deressed
- my priority

Fill in with the correct idiom put your socks up /// blow away /// down in the dumps /// high on my list /// over the moon /// fall in love /// get into the swing of

- The view was incredible. I was _____ by it.
- All my friends were off on holiday apart from me and I was _____ for a few days.
- Tidying my house isn't _____ of things to do for this weekend.
- In the film, the woman _____ with a millionaire.
- I wasn't used to working in an office but I soon _____ things.