Comfortable Breakfast with the Boys!

I was in Victoria visiting my two sons, and I'm not a man to stand in line for breakfast, so a few minutes drive to the comfortable White Spot on Fort Street was just perfect!

We were seated quickly, after displaying our covid codes, ordered and enjoyed some well-made breakfasts. I can't say the food delivery was quick, but we weren't in any hurry as the rain was coming down in buckets, and I had some 'catching up' to do.

I'd recommend making the short drive to here, for the breakfast or any other meal, along with the free parking, and I'll be back next time in town. Cheers, Paul

Not going there again.

The waitress never came by to fill our water glasses. They were empty for a long time. My kid wanted the food off their kid's menu. Side dish was supposed to be free refill. The waitress was adamant that she had to charge us extra for the side dish. When we showed her the menu stating that it was free refill, she said that she was not aware. She did not apologize until she came back later to inform us that she was still shocked that she was not aware of it. Food was dull; not much flavour to any of the things we ordered. We ordered burgers. All of this experience left us feeling not really welcomed at the restaurant. We were so hungry and was not even happy with food in our stomachs.

Well, good part of the restaurant? The restaurant, including the washrooms, was clean. Kid's menu had fun things for the kid to do with the free crayons they provided. That's all.

Terrible. Bad food, bad service, very slow. Used to be good but now trash.

Like any other person who had lived in Victoria, I have been to white spot umpteen times but no more.

I brought my family here the other day, including a 6 month old and a 3 year old. It took an hour for our food to arrive and when it did it was absolute trash.

I learned something that day from the manager - although the restaurant was more than half empty, we were stuck behind a huge number of unseen and unknown takeout orders. As they are a first come first serve whether you dine in or not you could be 100th in line and never know it!!! Of course the waitress neglected to mention the wait or that they were swamped in the kitchen so we had no way to know! Those with young families know how tough it is to keep young ones entertained and happy for an unnecessary length of time. Eventually the manager came around and offered a half hearted apology and comped our meal and said the food would be out shortly. It took another 10 minutes and when the food arrived, my father in laws burger was burned (when pointed out to the waitress she essentially said so what you're getting it for free). My son's spaghetti barely had any sauce, and the fries were cold on most of our plates. The waitress was also curt when talking with us for the remainder of the meal like any of this was our fault!! It is customary to tip the value of the meal but I could not bring myself to tip someone so unprofessional and rude.

Free meal or not we won't ever be back. Too many problems.
