

1 Watch the video. Number the things in the order you see them (1–6).

- a statue of an author with a walking stick __
- four statues in front of two flags __
- an old manuscript __
- The National Gallery of Ireland __
- an old painting of a famous Irish author __
- Trinity College __

2 Watch again. Choose the correct answers.

- 1 Who is Molly Malone?
 - A She is a famous Irish sculptor.
 - B She is a character in a famous Irish song.
 - C She owns a famous Irish pub.
- 2 Trinity College in Dublin is Ireland's ...
 - A best university.
 - B largest university.
 - C oldest university.
- 3 What year did Jonathan Swift leave Trinity College?
 - A 1682
 - B 1686
 - C 1866
- 4 What is the name of Bram Stoker's most famous book?
 - A Waiting for Godot
 - B Dracula
 - C Gulliver's Travels
- 5 What did Samuel Beckett do in 1969?
 - A He won the Nobel Prize for Literature.
 - B He opened the Samuel Beckett Centre.
 - C He wrote his most famous play.
- 6 Many people think Ulysses is the...
 - A best novel of all time.
 - B best song of all time.
 - C best dance of all time.

3 Watch again. Match questions 1–6 to answers a–f.

- 1 Why is Dublin popular with tourists? __
 - 2 Where in Dublin is Trinity College? __
 - 3 When was Jonathan Swift a student at Trinity College? _
 - 4 What did Samuel Beckett do at Trinity College?
 - 5 What is Oscar Wilde famous for writing? __
 - 6 What do some people think about James Joyce's famous book? ____
- a From 1682 to 1686.
 - b Because there are great museums and art galleries.
 - c For many people, Ulysses is the best book of all time.
 - d Plays, novels and children's stories. e He was a student and a teacher.
 - f In the city centre.

4 Watch again. Are the sentences true or false? Correct the false sentences.

- 1 Dublin's population is over three million people.
- 2 Molly Malone is a character in a famous Irish book.
- 3 Jonathan Swift's book is still popular with children and adults.
- 4 Bram Stoker started writing books after university.
- 5 Oscar Wilde was born in Dublin.
- 6 Many of James Joyce's stories are set in Trinity College.

5 Watch again. Complete the summary.

Dublin is the capital city of (1)_____. It's (2)_____ with tourists. Lots of famous Irish writers studied at Trinity (3)_____. Jonathan Swift, Bram Stoker and Samuel Beckett all studied here. Samuel Beckett won the Nobel Prize for Literature in (4)_____. Dublin is the (5)_____ for many books written by James Joyce. Many people think his book Ulysses is the best (6)_____ of all time.