

Zadanie 5. (5 pkt)

Track 8. Usłyszysz dwukrotnie wypowiedzi pięciu osób na temat różnych narodowości. Przyporządkuj każdej z wypowiedzi zdanie podsumowujące jej treść, wpisując litery (a–f) w kratki (5.1.–5.5.). Jedno zdanie nie pasuje do żadnej wypowiedzi. Za każdą poprawną odpowiedź otrzymasz 1 punkt.

5.1. _____ 5.2. _____ 5.3. _____ 5.4. _____ 5.5. _____

- a. An understandable impression.
- b. Varied stereotypes of people from my country.
- c. True of only a small minority.
- d. Only half true.
- e. It's all the fault of Hollywood.
- f. A nice image but too limited.

Zadanie 6. (5 pkt)

Track 9. Usłyszysz dwukrotnie wywiad z naukowcem. Z podanych odpowiedzi wybierz właściwą, zgodną z treścią nagrania. Za każdą poprawną odpowiedź otrzymasz 1 punkt.

- 6.1. The scientist states that
 - a. in 1983, no one imagined that there would one day be mobile phones.
 - b. none of the ideas in the 1950s magazine have come true.
 - c. our ability to make accurate predictions hasn't improved since the 1950s.
 - d. both the book and the magazine predicted well what life would be like in the year 2000.
- 6.2. Which of these is NOT a reason why it is difficult to predict the future?
 - a. Computer-generated predictions differ from human ones.
 - b. New inventions affect predictions in unexpected ways.
 - c. Scientists sometimes cannot foresee the future.
 - d. The data used to make a prediction can become outdated.
- 6.3. The scientist predicts that
 - a. there will be hunger due to an increase in population.
 - b. cars will be replaced by a new form of transport.
 - c. nanotechnology will be used all over the world.
 - d. the climate will change due to a new form of fuel.
- 6.4. The main problems with technology in the future will be faced by
 - a. poorer countries.
 - b. individuals.
 - c. farmers.
 - d. governments.
- 6.5. The scientist's vision of the future is
 - a. that neither extinction nor expansion are likely to occur.
 - b. the same as Sir Martin's.
 - c. that the human race probably won't survive the 21st century.
 - d. that war and terrorism won't exist anymore.