

VOCABULARY TEST

Name: Surname:

A. Complete the sentences with the right word from the box below.

subdue – vacillate – stagnate – typify – endurance – notion – onset – tremendous – imperative belated – debatable – obsolete – ambivalent – apprehensive – instrumental – blatant – gullible namely – vastly – preferably

1. He was active in poorer parts of the church, in inner London and Manchester.
2. They were making a amount of noise last night and they neighbours called the police.
3. It's whether a university degree helps at all in this field of work.
4. Police say they have a range of methods available to them to a person during a confrontation.
5. As secretary of state, he was in the creation of NATO.
6. Running a marathon is a test of human
7. Water the plants twice a week, in the morning.
8. His behavior showed a lack of respect.
9. The show's director rejects the that seeing violence on television has a harmful effect on children.
10. The statement was a acknowledgement that the project had not been a success.
11. Her mood between hope and despair.
12. Gas lamps became when electric lighting was invented.
13. I've invited a lot of people to the party, but I'm a little that no one will come.
14. The local economy when the factories closed.
15. My wife loves the opera, but I have feelings about it.
16. The president said it was that the release of all hostages be secured.
17. Communication, management, and supervisory skills have improved.
18. With his blond, blue-eyed athletic looks, he the all-American boy next door.
19. There are any number of miracle cures on the market for people enough to buy them.
20. We have to get the roof fixed before the of winter.

