

Present Simple

I play		Always (100%)
You play		Usually (90%)
He plays		Normally/Generally (80%)
She plays		Often/Frequently (70%)
It plays		Sometimes (50%)
		Occasionally (30%)
		Seldom (10%)
		Hardly ever/Rarely (5%)
		Never (0%)
Plural: We play You play They play

Present Continuous

I am playing		Now Right now At the moment Today Tonight
You are playing
He is playing
She is playing
It is playing
Plural: We are playing You are playing They are playing

Fill in the correct form of the verb missing: read, do, sing, watch, ride, go, have, wash

- I usually my homework in the afternoon.
- I never TV in the morning.
- Look! She is a bike.
- I rarely to bed early.
- Paul his teeth every day.
- He always lunch with his family.
- Listen! They a song.
- I am busy at the moment. I a book.

Transform the sentences into the negative and interrogative form as in the example.

Affirmative

I play football
He plays football

I am playing
He is playing
We are walking

I like chocolate

He watches TV

I am riding a bike

She is washing her face

We are playing tennis

Negative

I don't play football
He doesn't play football

I am not playing
He isn't playing
We aren't walking

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Interrogative

Do I play football? (Present simple)
Does he play football?

Am I playing? (Present Continuous)
Is he playing?
Are they walking?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....