

CULTURE

CINEMA – LISTENING

Going to the cinema was Oliver's idea.

P	N
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Sally paid for the cinema tickets.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

Oliver and Sally sat in the last row.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

Oliver was annoyed by the guy sitting next to him.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

Sally didn't turn her phone off before the film started.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

Oliver's favourite actress played the main character in the film.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

Sally was surprised by the film's ending.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

Sally and Oliver agreed to go to the cinema again next Saturday.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------	--------------------------

What is the name of the radio station?

(0) Sun Radio

Which day does the Arts City Festival in Chicago start on?

on (13) _____

How many cow sculptures can you see in Chicago during the Cow Parade?

(14) _____

What was Walter Knapp's job?

(15) _____

What animal did the exhibition in 2004 present?

(16) _____

What was the highest price ever paid for a sculpture of a cow?

(17) _____ euros

What material was the Waga Moo Moo cow decorated with?

(18) _____

Where in Chicago will the festival workshops be located?

in the (19) _____

AN EXHIBITION – LISTENING

THE SIMPSONS

Bart, Homer, Marge, Lisa and Maggie. These are the famous characters from The Simpsons series, which has been on TV _____ more than 20 years. Maybe you know them, _____ you do not watch the series. Almost everyone _____ who the Simpsons are as they are the _____ TV cartoon characters in the world. They are something like a symbol of America. It is hard to believe that you can _____ one phrase that Homer often says in the series in the Oxford English Dictionary as a normal English phrase. It is D'oh! and it _____ when Homer injures himself or realises that he has done a stupid thing.

In January 2010, The Simpsons celebrated its 20th anniversary in a special TV show. This show featured¹ interviews, the history of the series, news, funny moments and _____ 450th episode of this great series. The authors also showed _____ the jokes came from.

How long will The Simpsons _____? The creator of the show, Matt Groening, says probably until the actors Dan Castellaneta (Homer's voice) and Julie Kavner (Marge's voice) _____ 70 or 80 years old.

The Simpsons have _____ fun of religion a lot of times. It is _____ that the Vatican newspaper said the humour of the series is realistic and intelligent and it is okay.

Last year, the U.S. Postal Service _____ five first-class stamps with the characters from The Simpson series. And now they are finally on sale. Matt Groening says that it is a really big honour for the show. Bart Simpson enjoys _____ stamps, and this is a motivation for _____ young teenagers.

(Friendship 4-5/2010, upraveno)

¹ to feature: predstavít