UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE

Here is my unforgettable experience. One day I joined a story telling contest. Two of my friends and I had been chosen to take a part in the final round at the district level. I was very happy and eager to win the competition.

For preparation, I had to memorize and understand the story well. My teacher guided and taught me pronunciation, facial expression and gestures. One day, before performing, my friends and I were busy to prepare the props and costumes for the competition. Thing that made me sad was my teacher rented the props and costumes for my friends but not for me.

My two friends had beautiful costumes and luxurious props. Although I just wore the simple ones, I performed my best to win the competition. The competition started. I got number 29 and my friends got number 5 and 10. I was nervous but I showed my best performance on stage. Lots of people took photos and videos of me.

Finally, anxiety was gone after I had finished performing. And then, the announcement came which made three of us very uneasy. Luckily I was chosen as the first winner. I went to the stage and all the judges congratulated me and gave a plaque, trophy, and money. I was very happy.

16. What is the writer's intention to write the text?
    A. To tell his achievement
    B. To win the competition.
    C. To describe his feeling to the teacher.
    D. To show his disappointment to teacher.
    E. To tell his expectation to be the winner.

17. From the text it can be concluded that . . .
    A. Practice makes performance go well.
    B. Being nervous helps perform well on the stage.
    C. Wearing simple clothes can help win the competition.
    D. It is necessary to wear beautiful costumes for the competition.
    E. Beautiful costumes and luxurious props are the requirements for the competition.

18. Why did the writer feel sad before the competition?
    A. She had no luxurious gown.
    B. Her teacher really cares about her.
    C. Her teacher was not fair to her.
    D. Her friends did not support her.
    E. She only had a very simple dress.
