1. Mimi Latouche is getting a little too old for this kind of thing, and as I watched her pirouette across the stage in a tutu two sizes too small, she reminded me not so much of a swan as a rather ungainly crow.
2. The scenery was wonderful. The costumes were marvellous. The cast were incredible. I wish I could say the same about the script. The playwright should be shot.
3. In his new book on Ernest Hemingway, acclaimed writer Michael Norris has brought the great man to life in a way nobody else could.
4. Move over Michelangelo! You have a rival. Vittorio Manelleto's marble pieces embody the human form in a way that has not been achieved in over 500 years.
5. I had to study the picture for almost two minutes before I realised who it was. It was none other than our Queen. I doubt she would have been amused.
6. There are no great tenors in Britain. That is until now. Brian Clack's performance in La Traviatta sent shudders down my spine. What a man! What a voice! What a size!
7. Herbert von Erding has been conducting now for almost 40 years, and his final appearance yesterday was greeted with a standing ovation from both musicians and members of the audience.
8. Stone Angel is an hilarious tale about the fall and rise of an opera singer. I picked it up and didn't put it down until I had finished. A fantastic book.
9. Dylan Thomas showed remarkable eloquence, and this latest compilation of some of his finest prose will surely be a bestseller.
10. Bruschetta's studies of dead animals might not be to everyone's taste, but it is impossible to deny his skill in representing inanimate objects like these on canvas.
11. He usually works in black and white, and in my opinion that's the medium he should stick to. His colour shots are too static and are heavily over-filtered, the strong lighting washes out any subtlety, and much of it is out of focus.

12. Shot entirely on location in Iran, this is perhaps the director's finest hour. A stunning setting, fine performances from the leads, and a cast of thousands of extras make this a truly visual feast.
13. The painting shows a lot of red circles and triangles inside squares floating in the sky above a yellow sea, and is titled 'Contractual Obligation Metamorphosis'.
14. 'Dawn View of London' takes in the whole of the city as seen from the top of Parliament Hill, although the artist has removed some of the less attractive buildings from the foreground.

Hello, and welcome to today's edition of 'But is it Art?'

Now, I don't usually enjoy 1..... – all those pirouettes and pas de deux's and dying swans usually send me to sleep, but last night's 2..... of Sleeping Beauty at Nureyev Hall had me on the edge of my seat. And I'm not the only one: rave 3..... in the national press praised the excellent choreography and the incredible stage set. It's on again tonight, but you'll have to move fast if you want a ticket!

The current 4..... of Monetto's paintings at the Wheatley Art 5..... has been a disappointment. The pictures themselves are excellent, especially the great artist's 6..... of film stars, and of course his stunning 7..... of a vase of daffodils, but the lighting inside the room was terrible. I would have thought that, having received a government 8..... of almost £100,000, the Wheatley Arts Council could have invested it in some good lights.

Fans of the great twentieth-century 9..... George Orwell will be delighted to hear that Swansong Press are going to release a collection of his greatest 10....., which will of course include Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty Four. Also included are some rare short stories which were not 11..... until after his death. Look out for the book, which will be in the shops from the end of the month.

On the subject of books, a new 12..... of the life of conductor Charles Worsenmost is due to be released in January. Worsenmost conducted his last 13..... in 1998 after a long and eventful career. This is highly recommended for anyone who is remotely interested in classical music.

Have you ever wanted to be an 14..... singer? Well, now's your chance! The National Music Company are looking for tenors and sopranos to audition for a new production of Mozart's Marriage of Figaro. If you're interested, we'll give you the number to call at the end of the programme.

Potential Michelangelos and Henry Moores can try their hand at 15..... this weekend. The Gleneagles Museum is holding a series of workshops which will give you the chance to chip away at a lump of stone to produce a piece of three-dimensional art. There's no need to book – just turn up at the door on Saturday at nine o'clock.

And now here's that number I promised you... .
