Read this postcard from Nicky and answer all the questions.

Dear Sophie,

I am staying with my friend in London for one month. She has a small flat, but the city is very big and I love it here. On Saturday, we usually go to the market. I really enjoy it. There are some great clothes and some pretty jewellery. Last Saturday, I bought a bracelet and earrings.

On Sunday, we go to the park. There is a lake there with a lot of ducks. They can swim very fast! We watch the ducks and usually play football. Sometimes we have pizza for lunch.

Today, I am making a cake for my friend. Her birthday is tomorrow.
I hope you are having a good holiday.

See you soon,
Nicky

Read the passage and answer the questions. There is one example.

Grace lives in the countryside near the mountains. Last summer her family went on holiday. They stayed at her grandmother's house in the city. Grace had a big bedroom. She shared it with her sister. Her little brother shared another room with their parents. In the garden there were cherry and apricot trees, roses and tulips. The roses were Grace's favourite flowers in the garden. Next to her grandmother's house there was a swimming pool. It was £4 for a ticket and Rosie and her sister went there every day. One day they went to the zoo. It was £3 for children and £5 for adults. Grace liked the giraffes and the hippos. Her sister loved the monkeys best but she was scared of the camels.
