

Review

A Complete the sentences with a / an / X

1. Would you like an orange?
2. She eats a chicken sandwich for lunch every Monday.
3. There is some butter in the fridge.
4. Do you drink any soda?
5. Please buy a bag of potatoes at the store.

B Complete the conversation with a / an / some / any

1. A: This potato salad is good. What are the ingredients?
B: It is very simple. _____ potatoes, _____ onion, _____ mayonnaise, and _____ salt and pepper.
A: Do you put _____ blue cheese on it?
B: No, I usually don't. Would you like _____?
A: I want a BLT sandwich for lunch.
B: What's a BLT?
A: It's a sandwich with bacon, lettuce, and tomato.
B: Oh, I see. Do you have the ingredients?
A: Well, there are some tomatoes on the table and there is some lettuce in the fridge.
B: Do you have any turkey bacon?
A: I don't see any in the fridge. And I don't have any bread, either.
B: Then let's go out to lunch. You can order a BLT at the restaurant!

 Find the error in each sentence. Rewrite the sentence so it is correct.

1. How many orange juice do you need?

2. He drinks a little of coffee in the morning. Sometimes five cups!

3. There is not many sugar in the sugar bowl.

4. Don't buy tomatoes. We have lot of home grown ones.

5. My son likes a few of vegetables with his dinner.

6. How much apples do you need to make apple pie?
