

Listening and understanding -

WATCH THE VIDEO AND

COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH

THE MISSING WORDS

Ensure access to _____ reliable sustainable and modern energy for all.

Did you know that until 1850 cooking was done by _____ two stones together? It's not that long ago. Nowadays we can't imagine our _____ lives without electricity, but more than 1.2 _____ people live without most of them in Africa and Asia. Without electricity, clinics can't work, students can't study and _____ can't direct their competitive companies. We can all contribute at our own _____, saving electricity and aiming for _____ renewable resources, adopting technologies, infrastructures and non _____ transport. We should all learn from Sam Goldman and Ned Tozum. They are thirty-two years old, they're from San Francisco and their project has helped more than 30 million people in _____ countries. Their _____ lamps give twelve hours of light without using polluting and dangerous _____ and they save up money, as well as reducing the risk of fires. It's accessible, clean, _____ energy for homes.

Are you aware of all the possibilities you have of _____ by saving energy?

One: connect devices to power strips to disconnect all their activity, cover the pots when cooking and you'll _____ up to seventy-five% of energy, read the instructions of household appliances to maximize their _____ and energetic efficiency.

Two: _____ an energy counseling at home. A little investment will allow you some savings in your _____ and mostly a reduction of your consumption Three: save energy also in transport. Public transport, saves four times more energy than the car and the _____ you can achieve by walking or going by bike, are hundred percent.

Four: in winter try to have an _____ heating system. At home remove furniture and objects that _____ radiators, revise the boiler and remember that every extra degree means a seven% _____ of consumption.

Five: inform yourself of renewable energy uses, _____ your knowledge and support _____ energy projects for schools and houses. Use your energy! Use your Power!