Part 8. Read the story. Rearrange. Write number 1-5.

Early morning in Tinyville Town, Mary's ready for work. She's a police officer.

Mary goes on the street to protect and help the people of Tinyville Town.

Alex can't find his cat, and he asks Mary for help. Mary looks at a tree and sees the cat. Mary climbs up and helps the cat. She gives it back to Alex.

Next, Mary sees a girl throwing the banana peel. "Don't throw it on the street," says Mary. Then she throws banana peel into a bin.

Next, Tom and Jack have lost some cakes and food. They ask Mary for help. "Tell me what you know," says Mary. "Big ears. Long tail. Likes bananas and donuts," says Tom. They follow these clues and find the thief. "It's a monkey," says Mary.

Mary finishes her work and comes back home. On the streets of Tinyville Town, Mary has to be ready for everything.

- ☐ Mary helps Tom to find the thief.
- ☐ Mary helps Alex to find his cat.
- ☐ Mary finishes her work and goes home.
- ☐ Mary starts working on the street early in the morning.
- ☐ Mary throws the banana peel into a bin.
