

- What stops you from living the life you want to live?

- it wasn't until days later as I lay in a coma
- over the course of two and a half months
- and this is what my life looked like for the next few months
- four months later I was back up on a snowboard
- stop us in our tracks
- from there I had an opportunity to go to South Africa
- where I helped to put shoes on thousands on children's feet so they can attend school
- I've learnt that borders are where the actual ends
- and help us go further than we ever knew we could go

- Growing up in a hot Las Vegas desert all I wanted was to be free.
- And I could go anywhere.
- And completely in control of my life.
- I went home from work early one day with what I thought was the flu.
- And less than 24 hours later I was in a hospital with less than 2% chance living
- and both of my legs below the knee
- I didn't know what to expect but I wasn't expecting that
- I didn't have to be 5'5 anymore, I could be as tall as I wanted
- Or as short as I wanted, depending on who i was dating
- And I didn't just see myself carving down a mountain of powder, I could actually feel it
- I traumatized all the skiers on the chair-lift when
- went flying down the mountain.
- I did a year research, still couldn't figure out what kind of legs to use, couldn't find any resources that could help me
- that allows us to live our lives beyond our limits
