Book reviews

A Being Me

This book is full of practical advice for anyone who wants to be fit and healthy. Famous sportspeople have contributed their favourite recipes, and you'll also find instructions for a daily exercise routine.

C Action Plan

Action Plan is all about famous athletes, and there are some amazing photos of them competing. There are also lots of interviews about what they've done to succeed in their careers. You'll find out about things like the food they eat, the number of hours they train, and what they do to prepare for important competitions.

E Days in the Sun

In this book, a well-known author describes his happy early life growing up on a small Irish farm and how travelling around the countryside inspired him to become an author. He describes in detail how he improved his style, and his experiences will interest anyone who is hoping to get their own work published.

G Night Light

In Night Light, the writer tells us how he became a world-class athlete. He talks about his life as a blind person, and describes the challenges he faced on his way to the top in the world of sports. The book is written in an entertaining and amusing style, which makes it a very enjoyable read.

B Endless Days

In this book, the novelist tells the true story of the first pilots to fly across the Atlantic. With plenty of photographs and a detailed discussion of the importance of these events for the modern world, the book successfully brings history to life for readers everywhere.

D Memories

The prize-winning author of Memories is famous for his unusual writing style and exciting adventure stories. In this book, he takes us on a journey around the world and teaches us a lot about other cultures and their histories. He describes some of the world's most beautiful nature, as well as the many interesting people he has met.

F Parrots in Paradise

This newly published adventure story is about a young girl who's lost on a beautiful island with only birds and animals for company. The story deals with some of the difficulties she has, but there's also lots of excitement. If you love well-written fiction, this book's for you!

H Our Lives

This is the perfect book if you're interested in how people live in different parts of the world. It also includes recipes for traditional meals from these places. There are wonderful photos, not only of the people, but also of the wildlife and scenery in each location.

Question 1

Read this email from your English-speaking college classmate Alex and the notes you have made.

Hi,

It's great that we're going to work together on the college science presentation. Do you think we should choose the rainforest as our topic?

We only have two weeks to prepare, so can we start tomorrow?

Where can we go to prepare the presentation? My cousins are staying at my house at the moment, so we can't work there because it's too noisy.

We can give our presentation to the class either in the morning or the afternoon. Which would you prefer?

Let me know

Alex

Annotations with arrows pointing to specific parts of the email:

- "No, but ..." points to the question "Do you think we should choose the rainforest as our topic?"
- "Suggest ..." points to the question "Where can we go to prepare the presentation?"
- "Sorry ..." points to the question "Can we start tomorrow?"
- "Tell Alex" points to the closing "Let me know"

Write your email to Alex using all the notes.
