Let's practise with our English (level advanced)

WEATHER IDIOMS

Instructions: Read the sentences with weather idioms on column A and drag their meanings on Column B

(drag and drop the correct options..)

Don't worry about me. I'm as right as rain after my knee operation.
Don't bother ....Those two are always arguing about something, it's just a storm in a teacup.
Our English exam was a breeze. I'm sure I'll get top marks.
I'm snowed under at work right now, because two of my colleagues are on holiday.
I'll be there to help you move house come rain or shine.
He has his head in the clouds if he seriously thinks he's going to get a promotion soon.
Take you umbrella and a jacket because it's raining cats and dogs outside.
They were both on cloud nine during their honeymoon.
The project has been put on ice until our boss decides what to do next.

Thanks for inviting me to dinner but I can't this week. Can I take a rain check on that?
Don't spend your entire wage in one night. You should save for a rainy day.
Don't wear that dress to the wedding; the bride won't like it because you'll be stealing her thunder.
There is a ray of hope after all, it looks like we won't be losing our jobs.
Paul isn't coming with us because he feels a little under the weather.
First he lost his keys to the house, then his wallet and then his car broke down. It never rains but it pours…..
She was a fair-weather friend because she wasn't by my side once I lost my job..
I got laid off from work yesterday, but every cloud has a silver lining and now I can spend more time writing my book.
I think she's chasing rainbows if she thinks she can get admitted into Oxford University with these bad grades
The in-laws were about to arrive with their kids so she sat on the sofa with a cup of coffee enjoying the calm before the storm.
He offered to get her a drink to help break the ice..

Definitions of weather idioms .....

to say or do something to make someone feel at ease in a social setting.	to be there no matter what or whatever the weather.
to have so much to do	when someone tries to do something that they will not achieve peaceful period before a moment of great activity	There is always something positive to come out of a difficult situation.
person who is only your friend during good times.	when things don't just go wrong but very wrong
it's pouring down	to be out of touch of reality.
to postpone for another day.	to be very easy to do when someone takes attention away from someone else	to be extremely happy.
when someone makes a small problem larger than it really is.	to feel fine and healthy to save for the future when it might suddenly be needed	there is a chance that something positive will happen.
decline something now but offer to do it at a later date.	you are not feeling well