INTENSIVE COMPOSITION WRITING DAY 3 GUIDED

CLIMAX - 3RD PARAGRAPH - Make the problem worse

I mustered up all my strength to try to get back. However,

_____ . No matter how hard I

Body Language

tried, it was impossible. I was left far behind! However, I could not

Make The Problem Worse

_____ . I felt a tap on my shoulder.

Anticipation

When I turned around, I realised Joel was offering his hand. Why would Joel lend me a hand? Aren't we rivals? "Get up! You can do it!" he

_____ with a big grin. Wasn't Joel afraid of losing?

Speech Tag

_____ my teeth, I slowly got up. At first, I was

Facial Expressions

_____ . Joel was by my side. Bit by bit, I started speeding.

Walk Cycle

Soon, we both hit the finish line.

RECAP

What do we need for a good climax?

- The TOPIC of your composition would determine the MOST IMPORTANT SCENE in your story. The MOST IMPORTANT SCENE is where you focus the most of your energy.
- If your compo topic is PICKPOCKET. This is the paragraph where this scene takes place. It will be action-packed. There may be a tug of war with the pickpocket.
- If your compo topic is CHEATING. This is the paragraph where this scene takes place. It will be action-packed. You may get caught by your teacher.
- RAISE THE TENSION by using - Anticipation, Facial expressions, Body language, Other useful phrases, Dialogue, Speech tags, walk cycles.
- It is always good to end this paragraph in an exciting place by using ANTICIPATION - What happened next was unbelievable.

*Ending Conflict and Climax in an exciting place leaves your readers glued.

-PERSONAL THOUGHTS - Your character's inner thoughts.

CONCLUSION - 4TH PARAGRAPH - Solve the problem

Unfortunately, we both did not win. Disappointment
Solution

_____ . However, I felt _____.
Facial Expressions Emotional Adjective

that Joel did not win because of me. I hung my head in shame. "Why did you
Show Feelings

choose to help me?" I _____. "Marcus, you are a good runner.
Speech Tag

I admire you. Besides, I could not leave a friend behind!" Joel _____, flashing _____.

Speech Tag Facial Expressions

Thanks to his encouragement and words, I felt a lot better. I learned an important lesson and that is to never judge a book by its cover. From then on,

Lesson Learnt Proverb

Joel and I became thick friends.
