

Project 2 – Unit 4

Grammar Test

1. Complete the sentences. Choose from these words.

a	an	0 (no article)

Can I have a ham sandwich, please?

Do you like bananas?

I don't eat eggs.

Can I have packet of crisps, please?

We need loaf of bread.

Have you got tin of tomatoes?

2. Write the questions words for the answers. Use How much or How many.

There are two bananas. How many ...

I bought some meat. How much How many

I put some salt in the soup. How much How many

We've only got one apple.

There's one pot of yoghurt. How much How many

There's a lot of cheese. How much How many

3. Underline the correct alternatives.

There's only a little / some / a few butter left.

Do we need an the any eggs?

There are a little a few the people in the restaurant.

Put the flour in a bowl with any a little a few water.

I always put a any some cheese on my pasta.

We need some the an onions.

4. Underline the odd word out.

beef salmon lamb pork

fish	tuna	lettuce	salmon
grapes	pasta	satsumas	bananas
cheese	beans	tomatoes	lettuce
chicken	pork	lamb	rice
beans	orange juice	tea	coffee

5. Write the words under the correct heading.

water	ham	wine	milk	cabbage	potatoes	sausages
-------	-----	------	------	---------	----------	----------

Drinks

Meat

Vegetables

water

6. Complete the dialogue. Choose from these words.

an	for lunch	ham sandwiches	lunchbox	some	've got some
----	----------------------	----------------	----------	------	--------------

Dan Hi Elsa. What have you got for lunch today?

Elsa I've got two _____ and an orange. What's in your
_____?

Dan Oh, I _____ tuna salad. Oh, and _____ apple, too.

Elsa Mmm! I love tuna.

Dan Do you want _____ of my salad?

Elsa Yes, please. And you can have a ham sandwich.