Extra Training

Vocabulary Task 1655

Choose the correct item.

EVERYDAY LIFE ROUTINE

1. Our landlady gave us a week's _____ to leave her apartment.

2. I really doubt if I can _____ that huge house with a swimming pool.

3. He has spent a large _____ of money on the repairs of his new house.

4. Houses of worship and charitable institutions contribute nothing to our city's treasury; they are _____ from taxation.

5. We _____ Carl's plan to put in air conditioning but could not come to a decision.

6. The airline received hundreds of _____ claims following the loss of luggage.

7. After landing at Plymouth, the Pilgrims suffered greatly; about half of them failed to _____ the first winter.

8. The _____ from the airport was really exhausting since we had to drive through the fog.

9. Some shops have doors that open by themselves at the _____ of a customer.

10. It might be a good idea to buy a _____ raincoat because then it can be worn with either side out.

11. Mr. Skalds had purchased the laptop for all of his children, but the oldest behaved as if it were _____ hers.

12. Although Rolf is usually quite _____, he was so angered by the salesman's rude remarks that he insisted on complaining to the manager.

13. A /An _____ parent may spoil a child by creating an artificial atmosphere of leniency.

14. There is a lot of evidence supporting the common observation that the experiences of childhood _____ influence the structure of the adult personality.

15. She is a very _____ child, who always does as she's told.

16. Her parents let her do anything she likes, so she's completely _____.

17. Since her childhood, she has suffered from a speech _____, and therefore, she can't pronounce the sound "s" properly.

18. Most children object _____ to eating leeks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS