Extra Training

Vocabulary Task 1656

Choose the correct item.

ILLNESSES, INJURIES AND TREATMENT

1. Professional athletes usually have short careers due to injuries suffered by trying to perform at the limits of their capacity and _____ chronic pains and injuries.

2. Anthrax most commonly occurs in wild and domestic lower vertebrates, such as cattle, sheep, goats, camels, antelopes, and other herbivores, but it can also occur in humans when they are _____ infected animals or tissue from infected animals.

3. Malaria vaccine in African infants serves as the first proof of concept in the population that the vaccine has a _____ safety and tolerability profile.

4. Almost all countries have signed the WHO's tobacco control treaty, committing themselves to _____ the marketing of cigarettes, curbing smoking in public and helping smokers to quit.

5. The medicine won't cure her; it _____ stops the pain.

6. Iron _____ is one of the commonest causes of anaemia.

7. Most people acquire life-long _____ to German measles once they have had that disease.

8. His illness seemed to deteriorate gradually so his doctor asked him to stay in hospital under _____.

9. The new wing to the hospital was made possible by a gift of 10,000,000 dollars from a/an _____ contributor.

10. I normally don't look for medical advice, but my last injury convinced me to _____ a doctor.

11. Her treatment has been finished by the hospital committee but now she feels _____ about the cost.

12. When he removed his glasses, his vision was _____.

13. His injuries turned out to be _____ and he died the day after the accident.

14. The dentists working in this hospital object to _____ teeth without doing everything that can be done.

15. Stem cells may turn out to be a/an _____ alternative to animal testing.

LIVEWORKSHEETS