

WAITING 4 LOVE

Where there's a will,
there's a way,
kind of biutiful beautiful And every nigth night has its day, so magical magically
And if there's love in this live life, there's no obstacle That can't be defeat defeated
For every tyrant,
a tear for by the vulnerable
In every lost soul seal the bones of a miracle For every dreamer dream , a dream, we're unstoppable With something to delive believe in Monday left leave me broken Tuesday, I was through with hoopping hoping.
Wednesday, my empty arms were closed open Thursday, waiting for love, waiting for about love
Thank the starts stars it's Friday I'm burning like a fight fire gone wild on of Saturday Guess I won't be coming to church by on Sunday
I'll be waiting for love, waiting for love
to for come around
