

SILVER TONGUES

LOUIS TOMLINSON

Gettin' high on the amber wave Going deep for the ones who do the same/shame
Air Max's and silver tongues Settle in for another heavy one
You said love was a pretty tie/lie
And I choked when your smoke got in my eye/lie Bad logic and empty cans
I know nobody understands
Me live/like you do You know, it's times like these We're so much happier/
happiest
Nights like these We'll remember those stupid

jokes
Only we know
You know, when I'm with you
I'm so much happier
Nights like these We'll remember those songs
we wrote
Only we know
You smile/small at me and say, "It's time to go"
But I don't feel like goin'
home
You said grass were/was a dirty drug
You like to peach/preach with a vodka in your mug I love all the things/thinks you know
But I'm King/kind on a fifty-metre road
We stand up tall and beat

our chests
We shout some things that we'll regret
Sit down with a master plan
I know nobody understands
Me like you do It's times like these We're so much happiest/happier
Nights like these We'll remember those/these stupid jokes
Only we know
You know, when I'm with you
I'm so much happier
Nights like these
We'll remember those songs
we wrote
You small/smile at me and
say, "It's time to go"

You and me until the end
Wakin' up to start again

You and me until the end
There's nowhere else that I would/should rather be Because it's times like these
We're so much happier
Nights like these
We'll remember those stupid
Only we know
You know, when I'm with you
I'm so much happier
Nights like these
We'll remember those songs
we wrote/wrong
Only we know
You smile at me and say,
"It's time to go"
But I don't feel like goin'
home
