

- _____ 1. Comes from a Greek word "symbiosis" that means living together.
- _____ 2. A relationship where two different kinds of organisms benefit from each other.
- _____ 3. A relationship in which only one of two organisms is benefited while the other is not, but no harm comes to it.
- _____ 4. Occurs when an organism benefits to the disadvantage of the host.
- _____ 5. The prey or the smaller animals are being killed by the predator or the bigger animals.
- _____ 6. It occurs within the same species because of competing within its territory, food or mate.