

_____ 1. The action or art of imitating someone or something.

_____ 2. It is a pattern of behavior in which animals travel from one habitat to another in search of better climate, better food, safe place to live, and to raise their young.

_____ 3. A process where the animals sleep for a long period of time during a very cold weather.

_____ 4. The process of slowing down the body's activities during the dry season.

_____ 5. The ability of some animals to blend their color with their surroundings or by making animals or objects hard to see, or by disguising them as something else.

_____ 6. Ability of some animals to use a variety of strategies to escape from predation or to catch their prey.