Would you walk your dog around the world?

You're going to watch a video titled:
Why One Man Is Walking Around the World With His Dog*.

Before you watch it, discuss the questions.

a) Why do you think the man decided to walk around the world?

b) When you set off on a walking adventure for a few months, what challenges might you face?

d) Do you look for unique, off the beaten track destinations?

- What would make you leave the comforts of your home and embark on such a walking journey?
- What did the man learn from his journey? What can people learn through travelling? Can we learn something about ourselves?
