Report of an interview

Two Minutes With...

Dan Reynolds

Dan Reynolds is a pop rock singer. He has already sung a lot of songs. Last week I talked to him about his work.

I asked Dan about his most famous song called "Believer" which is a song performed by Imagine Dragons - an American pop rock band. I asked him about what inspired him to write that song. Reynolds said the song's lyrics were inspired by certain specific things in his life that have caused him so much trouble and pain.

He also said that the adversity he has come across in life is what helped him to become a "believer in yourself".

I asked Dan about the countries where he had concerts and he said that he has been to the United Arab Emirates, Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Colombia, Mexico, Italy, Croatia, and so on. I thought Dan was really friendly and interesting. I'm definitely going to listen to his music.

Answer the following questions:

1) What inspired you to write that song?
