This is Mrs Sarah White. She is a primary school teacher and she is very helpful and kind. She teaches English, Maths and Geography. At the moment, she is teaching Maths. She lives in London and is married to George, who is French. George is an architect and he is hard-working but he isn't boring at all. Sarah and George have three children: Arnold and little twins – Sandy and Laura. They all love animals, but they don't have any pets because they live in an apartment. Mrs White speaks French as well as English, but she doesn't teach it.

Mrs White's niece Sophie is staying with the Whites for some days. Sophie lives and studies in Liverpool, but she is enjoying her mid-term break in London at the moment. Sophie is quite curious and interested in clothes so she is planning to do some serious shopping and sightseeing.
