

CLASSIFY ANIMAL

In each row, check two animals that match the description on the left.

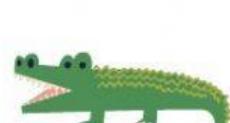

Mammals

are warm-blooded.
They feed their babies
on milk and have fur.

Reptiles

are cold-blooded.
They lay eggs and
have scales.

Birds

are cold-blooded.
They lay eggs and
have feathers.

Fish

are cold-blooded.
They live in water and
have scales.

Amphibians

are cold-blooded. They live on land and in water. They have
moist, smooth skin.

