

Will and Would 3

Fill in the blanks with will or would.

Claire: Mom! I'm so tired of studying, I want to go outside and play.

Mom: You _____ go anywhere until you finish your homework!

Claire: If the whole world was on fire, you _____ still make me do homework! You are terrible! I _____ never forgive you. Waaaaah! (starts crying)

Mom: You _____ forgive me when you grow up and learn that homework is good for you.

Tyrone: _____ you rather kiss a snake or a hedgehog?

Jackie: I _____ rather kiss a snake!

Tyrone: Really? Why?

Jackie: Maybe the snake _____ bite me, maybe not, but kissing a hedgehog _____ hurt no matter what!

Heidi: I hear you _____ play against 4A tomorrow. Do you think you _____ win?

Denise: Of course we _____ win!

Alex: Last year, we _____ play football with the teachers every Friday, but this year we can't. Teacher Smorkle says that next year we _____ play again.

Yolanda: If we could play now, which teacher _____ you play against?

Alex: Teacher Ivan, of course. He is terrible at football, he _____ never win. Who _____ you choose?

Yolanda: I _____ play against teacher Jixin. She is too nice to stop me.

Alex: That's smart!