

Exercise 9

Read the information. Then complete the conditional sentences with the words and phrases in the box. Watch the video and check your answers.

In IELTS Speaking Part 3, you will need to talk about different results and consequences. It is therefore important to be able to use conditional sentences in different ways.

as long as you as soon as they can if provided will

1. _____ have friends and family nearby, I don't think it matters where you live really.
2. I don't think we _____ ever live on other planets unless technology improves dramatically.
3. _____ local or national governments don't introduce new laws, pollution will increase to dangerous levels.
4. I think most young people who live in small towns want to move to big cities _____.
5. I don't think overcrowding will be a problem in cities, _____ local and national governments build enough houses for people.