

THE REAL WORLD

Shoppers at a market in India

A Complete the summary. Circle the correct answers.

Haggling is a conversation between ¹ a buyer and a seller / two sellers. The buyer wants to get something for a(n) ² expensive / cheap price. The buyer and seller usually agree on a price ³ from the beginning / after discussing more than one price.

B Complete the conversation. Use the prices in the box.

$10 $15 $17 $20

Buyer: Excuse me. Can I see that, please?

Seller: Sure, here you go.

Buyer: How much is it?

Seller: It's ¹ _____.

Buyer: That's too expensive. How about ² _____?

Seller: That's too cheap. I can sell it for ³ _____.

Buyer: That's still too expensive.

Seller: You can have it for ⁴ _____.

Buyer: OK, I'd like it, please.